Library Orientation program for first year students

By Mhaske Shubhangi

SKH Trusts Sewa Nursing College, Shrirampur

LIBRARY ORIENTATION PROGRAMME

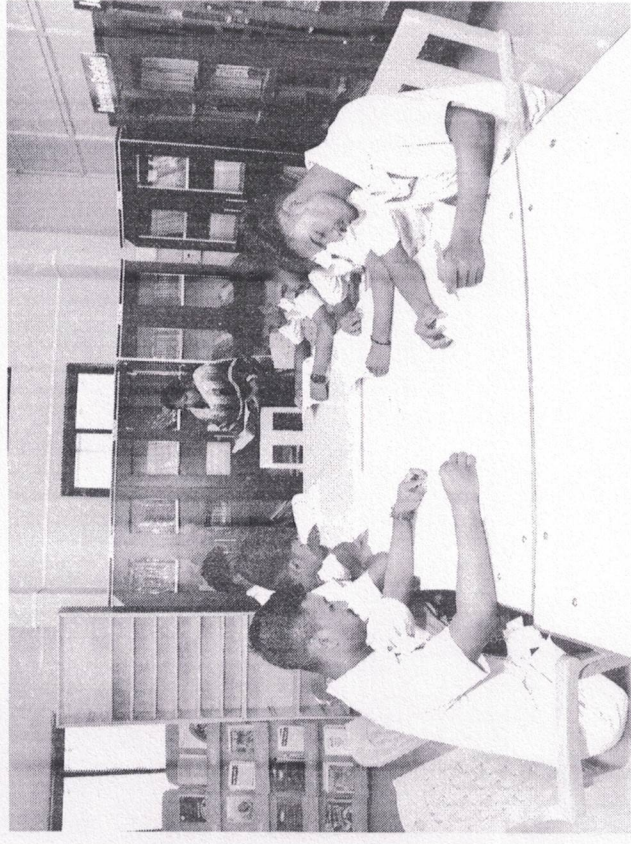

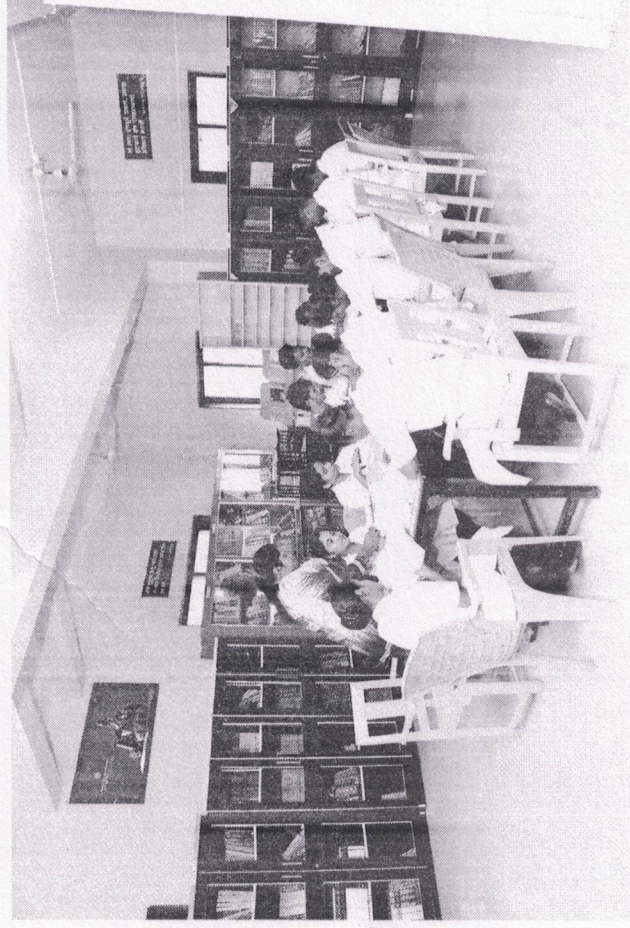

Library is the first home where the pupils starts there first education.

When they enter in the world of knowledge, they try to seek new and more knowledge and information. That is why they come to the library of their own school. But they face a lot of problems about using the library. It is the time to teach users about library use. Librarian comes forward with library orientation programme. School library plays an important role in achieving the schools' academic goals as well as shaping the students' personalities through its resources, facilities and services. Today's information rich world embraces those who excel in critical thinking, problem solving & decision making skills. Information handling skills is essential and our students have to be prepared in this direction.

OBJECTIVES OF LIBRARY ORIENTATION PROGRAMME

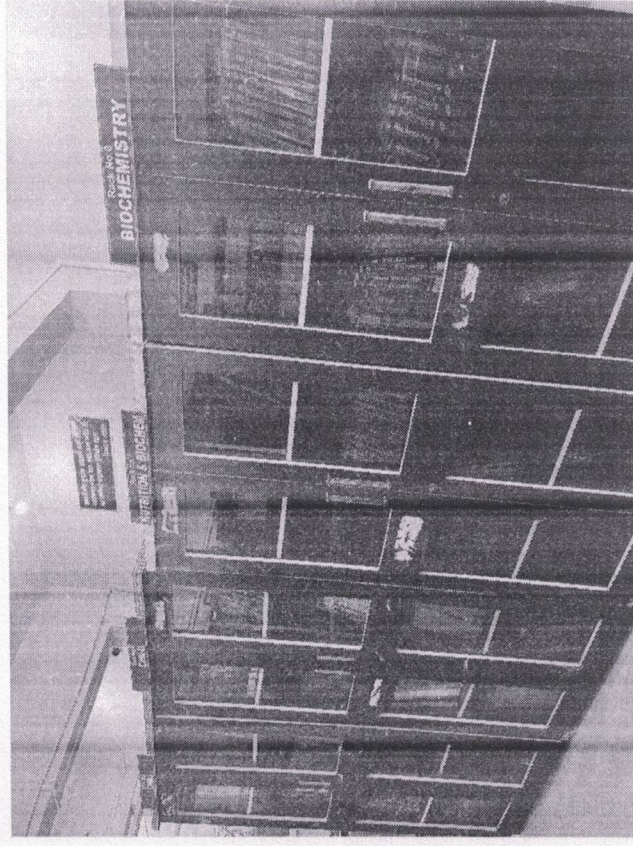

- Library orientation is very crucial and effective in school environment. The main purpose of school library orientation is
- To help the students with the universal goal of school education.
- To guide the new users who don't know the use of the library.
- To provide instructions to the new users about the use of library.
- To make the users educated about the use of library catalogue, OPAC, reference tools etc.
- To develop students who are not well informed, self-reliant & life-long learners.
- To help students to understand role of school library in their learning process.
- To create awareness about different library resources like books, magazines, periodicals, maps, charts, tables, audio visual collection.
- To make awareness about different sections like Reference Section, Periodical Section, Reading Room, Circulation Counter, Digital Section, Rear Book Section etc.

- To be familiar with the place, people and make students connection with library and resources.
- To help students to understand mechanism of library and save time of students & avoid repetitive chores.
- To inform students as to whom to contact for what & when for their resource requirements.
- To indulge students in library & convert them to life- long learners.

Library

A Collection or group of collections of books and other print or non print materials organized and maintained for use readers.

Vision of the Library

Report on Mahatma Phule Jayanti at Seva Nursing College, Shrirampur – 2024

Date: Saturday, 11th April 2024

Time: 11AM

Venue: Multi-Purpose Hall, Seva Nursing College, Shrirampur

Organized by: BSC Students

Audience: Students and Staff of Seva Nursing College, Shrirampur

Introduction:

On Saturday, 11th April 2024, Seva Nursing College, Shrirampur, celebrated the birth anniversary of Mahatma Jyotirao Phule, a prominent social reformer, educator, and philanthropist. The event, held at the college's multi-purpose hall, was organized by the BSC students and was attended by both students and staff. Mahatma Phule is remembered for his pioneering efforts in the fields of education, women's rights, and the upliftment of the oppressed and marginalized communities. The celebration was an opportunity to honor his contributions to society and to inspire the students to follow his path of social equality and justice.

Objective:

The primary objectives of the Mahatma Phule Jayanti celebration were:

1. To pay tribute to Mahatma Jyotirao Phule and acknowledge his significant role in social reform, particularly in promoting education for all, regardless of caste and gender.
2. To educate students and staff about Mahatma Phule's contributions to Indian society and the importance of social equality.
3. To inspire the students to adopt values of social justice, equality, and education in their personal and professional lives.
4. To encourage discussions on social reform and the ongoing importance of Mahatma Phule's vision in modern society.

The Program:

The celebration included a series of speeches, tributes, and reflections on Mahatma Phule's life and legacy. The BSC students organized the event with great enthusiasm, and the program was thoughtfully structured to highlight the key aspects of his life and work. The following points summarize the major components of the program:

1. Introduction and Tribute to Mahatma Phule:

The event began with a formal introduction to Mahatma Jyotirao Phule's life and work. Students shared information about his journey, focusing on his revolutionary role in founding the First Girls' School in Pune, advocating for women's education, and challenging the caste system. The introduction set the tone for the celebration, emphasizing Phule's commitment to social justice and equality.

2. Speeches by BSC Students and Faculty:

The BSC students delivered speeches throughout the event, paying tribute to Mahatma Phule's life and contributions. The students shared how Phule's work in education and social reforms inspired them as nursing students and how his vision of an inclusive society remains relevant today. The speeches were filled with respect and admiration for Mahatma Phule's pioneering efforts in creating a more just and equitable society.

Faculty members also participated in the speeches, reflecting on the importance of Phule's contributions to education and his efforts to uplift the marginalized sections of society. They encouraged the students to embrace Phule's values of social equality and fight against injustice in all its forms.

3. Cultural Program and Performances:

The BSC students organized a small cultural program in honor of Mahatma Phule. The performances highlighted Phule's work, focusing on his contributions to social reform, women's rights, and education. These performances were intended to inspire students to follow in the footsteps of Phule and continue his legacy of challenging social inequalities.

4. Interactive Session and Discussion:

Following the speeches, an interactive session was held where students and staff discussed the ongoing relevance of Mahatma Phule's teachings in modern society. The session focused on the importance of education, gender equality, and social justice. Students shared their thoughts on how Mahatma Phule's ideals can be applied to improve society and the healthcare profession.

5. Reflection on Mahatma Phule's Impact on Education and Society:

The program concluded with reflections on how Mahatma Phule's emphasis on education for all has influenced the Indian education system and contributed to the advancement of marginalized communities. Introduction:

On Saturday, 14th April 2024, Seva Nursing College, Shrirampur, commemorated the birth anniversary of Dr. Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar, a visionary leader and the principal architect of the Indian Constitution. The event, organized by the GNM students, was held in the multi-purpose hall of the college and was attended by both students and staff. The celebration was a tribute to Dr. Ambedkar's life, his contributions to society, and his unwavering fight for equality and justice for the marginalized communities.

Objective:

The primary objectives of the Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Jayanti celebration were:

1. To honor Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar and acknowledge his significant contributions to Indian society, especially in the areas of social justice, equality, and education.
2. To raise awareness about Dr. Ambedkar's vision for an inclusive and equitable society.
3. To provide students and staff an opportunity to reflect on the importance of his work and values in the modern context.
4. To encourage discussions on social justice, equality, and human rights.

The Program:

The celebration began with a formal introduction, followed by a series of speeches, performances, and reflections on Dr. Ambedkar's life and contributions. Here are the key highlights of the program:

1. Opening Speech and Tribute:

The event began with a warm welcome and an introduction to Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar's life and achievements. Students of the GNM program shared their thoughts and paid tribute to Dr. Ambedkar's efforts in uplifting the oppressed and marginalized sections of society. His role in drafting the Indian Constitution and promoting social equality was acknowledged.

2. Speeches by Students and Faculty:

Both GNM students and staff members delivered speeches throughout the program. The students shared their reflections on Dr. Ambedkar's ideology, particularly his fight against untouchability, his contributions to education, and his commitment to justice and human rights. The speeches emphasized how Dr. Ambedkar's work continues to inspire millions to strive for equality and social justice.

The faculty members also joined the students in honoring Dr. Ambedkar's legacy, focusing on how his principles can be applied in today's society. They encouraged the students to adopt his values of equality, dignity, and respect for all individuals.

3. Cultural Program and Performances:

The students organized a small cultural program, which included performances inspired by Dr. Ambedkar's life and teachings. These performances were designed to educate the attendees about his contributions while also showcasing the students' creativity and enthusiasm. The performances highlighted key moments from Dr. Ambedkar's life, such as his role in the framing of the Constitution and his advocacy for education and social reforms.

4. Interactive Session and Discussion:

An interactive session followed the speeches, where students and staff shared their views on Dr. Ambedkar's vision for a progressive and just society. The session encouraged open discussion on topics like equality, caste discrimination, and the importance of education in bringing about social change.

5. Reflection on Dr. Ambedkar's Values:

To conclude the program, all attendees were encouraged to reflect on Dr. Ambedkar's values and how they can implement his principles in their daily lives. The students were reminded of the significance of unity, social harmony, and the fight against discrimination in all its forms.

Participation:

The event saw enthusiastic participation from all GNM students as well as faculty members and staff. Everyone present at the event took part in the speeches, discussions, and cultural performances, contributing to a collective effort to honor Dr. Ambedkar's memory and ideals.

Role of College Leadership:

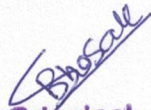

The leadership of Seva Nursing College supported the event wholeheartedly. Principal Ajumuddin Shaikh Sir and other staff members were present to encourage the students and express their appreciation for the well-organized program. The college management expressed their commitment to upholding Dr. Ambedkar's principles within the college environment, ensuring that students continue to receive a platform to learn and grow in an atmosphere of equality and respect.

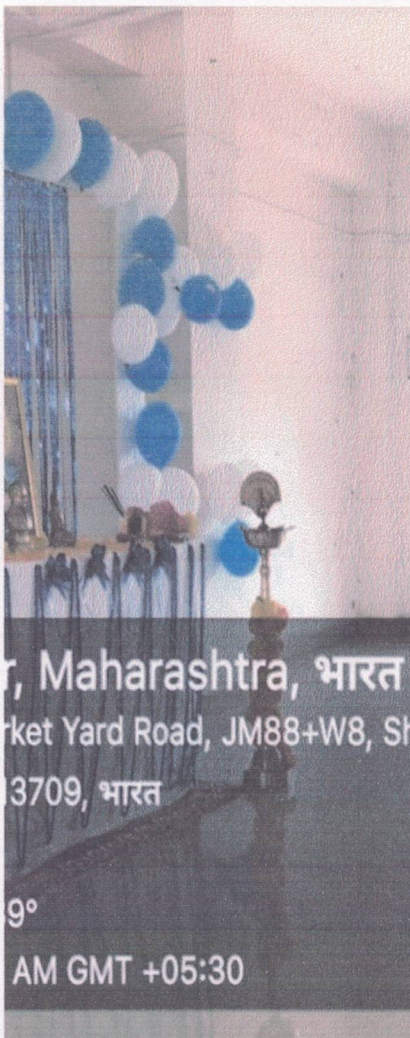

Conclusion:

The celebration of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Jayanti at Seva Nursing College, Shrirampur, was a meaningful and educational event. The program organized by the GNM students was a fitting tribute to Dr. Ambedkar's life and work. The speeches, performances, and discussions sparked thoughtful reflections on the importance of equality, justice, and education. The event successfully promoted awareness about Dr. Ambedkar's contributions to society and encouraged all attendees to embrace his values in their personal and professional lives.

Through this program, Seva Nursing College reaffirmed its commitment to promoting the principles of social justice, equality, and human dignity, which were at the core of Dr. Ambedkar's legacy.

Organized by: GNM Students

Audience: Students and Staff of Seva Nursing College, Shrirampur

Introduction:

On Saturday, 12th June 2024, Seva Nursing College, Shrirampur, commemorated the birth anniversary of Florence Nightingale, the founder of modern nursing. The celebration was held in the college's multi-purpose hall, organized by the GNM students. The program was attended by both students and faculty members. Florence Nightingale is remembered for her pioneering work in nursing, health care, and hygiene, and her contributions to the development of modern nursing as a profession. This special event aimed to honor her legacy and inspire the current generation of nursing students.

Objective:

The main objectives of the Florence Nightingale Birth Anniversary celebration were:

1. To honor the life and contributions of Florence Nightingale to the field of nursing.
2. To acknowledge the significant role of nurses in health care and society.
3. To inspire the students to follow the values of compassion, care, and professionalism, which Nightingale exemplified in her career.
4. To reflect on Florence Nightingale's legacy and her impact on the global healthcare system.

The Program:

The celebration began with a warm welcome and an introduction to the life and achievements of Florence Nightingale. The GNM students organized a program that included speeches, reflections, and tributes to her contributions. The following highlights the key moments of the event:

1. Introduction to Florence Nightingale's Legacy:

The event commenced with an introduction to Florence Nightingale's life, including her early years, her dedication to improving healthcare, and her efforts to professionalize nursing. The students shared her remarkable journey, including her work during the Crimean War and the establishment of modern nursing practices, which laid the foundation for nursing education worldwide.

2. Speeches by GNM Students and Faculty:

Both GNM students and faculty members delivered speeches during the celebration, paying tribute to Nightingale's pioneering role in nursing. The students emphasized her qualities, such as her commitment to patient care, hygiene, and health reform. They also reflected on how Florence Nightingale's values, such as empathy, professionalism, and dedication, continue to inspire them in their journey as nursing students.

Faculty members spoke about how Nightingale's contributions shaped nursing education and how her work continues to influence the profession today. They encouraged students to emulate her compassion and attention to detail in their nursing practices.

3. Cultural Program and Performances:

The GNM students organized a small cultural program, which included performances that highlighted Florence Nightingale's dedication and influence on the nursing profession. The students demonstrated their understanding of her values and how they strive to incorporate them into their practice as future nurses.

4. Reflection on Florence Nightingale's Impact on Modern Nursing:

A special session was dedicated to discussing how Florence Nightingale revolutionized healthcare practices by focusing on hygiene, statistics, and patient care. Students reflected on her contribution to the profession and how her work set the standards for modern nursing education and practice.

5. Interactive Discussion:

An open discussion followed the speeches, where both students and staff were encouraged to share their thoughts on how Florence Nightingale's principles could be applied in today's nursing practice. This discussion allowed the attendees to reflect on their roles as future nurses and the responsibility they carry to care for others with compassion and professionalism.

Participation:

The celebration was well-attended by GNM students and staff members, all of whom actively participated in the event. The GNM students demonstrated excellent organizational skills and performed their roles with enthusiasm and respect. The speeches and reflections delivered by both students and staff members were deeply thoughtful, showing a genuine understanding of Florence Nightingale's contributions to the nursing profession.

Role of College Leadership:

The college leadership, including Principal Ajumuddin Shaikh Sir, provided strong support for the event. The participation of faculty members in the speeches and discussions also highlighted the college's commitment to honoring the values of Florence Nightingale and the role of nursing professionals in healthcare.

Conclusion:

The Florence Nightingale Birth Anniversary Celebration at Seva Nursing College was a grand success. The GNM students successfully organized the event, which honored Nightingale's legacy and inspired current nursing students to embrace her values of compassion, dedication, and professionalism in their own practice. The speeches, cultural performances, and interactive discussions were insightful and served as a reminder of the importance of nursing in healthcare and society.

This event not only paid tribute to a great leader in the nursing field but also encouraged students to reflect on their responsibility as future nurses. Florence Nightingale's legacy continues to inspire generations, and the celebration at Seva Nursing College was a fitting tribute to her contributions to the profession.

Introduction:

On the occasion of Teacher's Day, celebrated on the birth anniversary of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, Seva Nursing College, Shrirampur, organized a special program on Saturday, 5th September 2024. The event, held at the college's multi-purpose hall, was organized by the 4th-year B.Sc. Nursing students. The day was dedicated to honoring the teachers and educators who play a crucial role in shaping the future of students. The program included speeches, cultural performances, and a special inauguration of Abraham Lincoln's letter, along with a heartfelt tribute to Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan.

Objective:

The main objectives of the Teacher's Day celebration were:

1. To pay tribute to Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, a renowned educator, philosopher, and the second President of India, on his birth anniversary.
2. To express gratitude to all teachers and staff for their continuous guidance, support, and dedication toward the development of students.
3. To provide an opportunity for students to demonstrate their respect and appreciation for their teachers through speeches, performances, and a role-play activity.
4. To foster a sense of unity and respect between students and faculty members.

The Program:

The Teacher's Day celebration began with a warm welcome address by one of the 4th-year B.Sc. Nursing students, followed by the opening of the event. The program featured various activities, which included speeches, role performances, and an important inauguration ceremony.

1. Role Play of Teachers:

The highlight of the celebration was the role-play performed by the 4th-year B.Sc. Nursing students. On this special occasion, the students impersonated their teachers, showcasing their deep respect and admiration for the guidance they have received. The students meticulously performed the roles of teachers, highlighting their significance in the learning process. The role-play was both entertaining and heartfelt, leaving a lasting impact on the audience.

2. Speeches:

Several students and faculty members delivered speeches during the event, expressing gratitude and admiration for the teaching staff. Students shared personal experiences and how their teachers have influenced and inspired them in their academic journey. The speeches were filled with appreciation for the hard work, patience, and dedication shown by the educators.

3. Inauguration of Abraham Lincoln's Letter:

A unique moment of the program was the inauguration of Abraham Lincoln's letter. This letter, famous for its emphasis on the importance of education, was read aloud, and its message resonated with everyone present. The inauguration of this letter was symbolic of the values of knowledge and the importance of education in shaping individuals and society.

4. Guest Speeches and Presence:

The event was graced by the presence of esteemed guests: Trustee Aher Sir, Dr. Ravindra Jagdhane Sir, and Secretary Apte Kaka. Trustee Aher Sir, in his speech, emphasized the importance of teachers in shaping the lives of students and acknowledged the hard work of the 4th-year B.Sc. Nursing students in organizing the event. Dr. Ravindra Jagdhane Sir and Secretary Apte Kaka also shared their views on the significance of teaching and the responsibility educators carry in imparting knowledge and values.

Participation:

The event was well-attended by both students and staff, with everyone actively engaging in the activities. The 4th-year B.Sc. Nursing students demonstrated excellent teamwork and effort in organizing the celebration, and their performances were highly appreciated. The guests were deeply moved by the enthusiasm and sincerity of the students, who made the day memorable through their tributes.

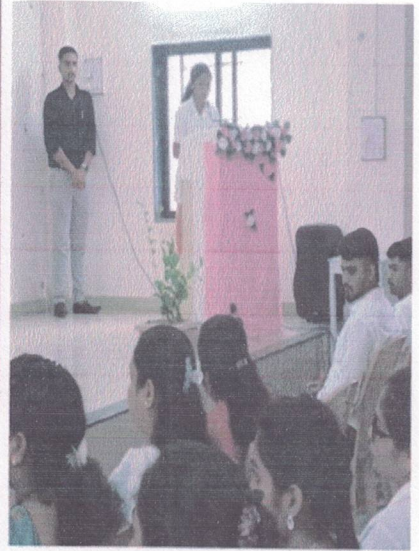

Role of College Leadership:

Principal Ajumuddin Shaikh Sir and the college leadership played an essential role in supporting the event. The involvement of Trustee Aher Sir, Dr. Ravindra Jagdhane Sir, and Secretary Apte Kaka further reinforced the significance of Teacher's Day and the values of education and respect for teachers within the college community.

Conclusion:

The Teacher's Day celebration at Seva Nursing College was a grand success.
