LIBRARY ORIENTATION PROGRAMME

Program featured a lecture-cum-demonstration introducing students to the library's resources, services, rules, and staff, evaluation of web resources, and the ethical use of information. A live demonstration was also conducted on how to use the library catalogue and databases in house and also remotely. Furthermore, students were introduced to the activities organized by the Library Society, including book clubs, visits to notable libraries in the city, and celebrations of National Library Week and International Mother Language Day. An interactive Q&A session provided students with an opportunity to clarify their doubts regarding the effective use of library services. At different times and in departmental batches, students are escorted to the library for guided tours, enabling them to familiarize themselves with the physical layout and facilities. Dedicated sessions are also organized to provide hands-on training on accessing e-resources, searching the catalogue, and navigating the library's website and databases.

REPORT ON SAVITRIBAI PHULE JAYANTI

Date: 3rd January 2026

Place: SKH trusts Seva Nursing College

Venue: Courtyard of college

Occasion: Savitribai Phule Jayanti

Report on Savitribai Phule Jayanti

Savitribai Phule Jayanti is celebrated every year on 3rd January to honor the birth anniversary of Savitribai Phule, in SKH trusts Seva Nursing College. Savitribai Phule was India's first female teacher and a great social reformer. 3rd January 2026 is observed to remember her remarkable contribution to women's education and social equality in India. On this occasion, a garlanding or portrait was done by Patharkar kanchan 10am at SKH trusts Seva Nursing College. The program began with the lighting of the lamp and floral tributes offered to the portrait of Savitribai Phule. Students and teachers actively participated in the event with great respect and enthusiasm.

Speeches were delivered highlighting Savitribai Phule's life, struggles, and achievements. She, along with her husband Mahatma Jyotirao Phule, opened the first school for girls in Pune in 1848. Despite facing severe social opposition, she continued her mission to educate girls and oppressed communities. Her work against caste discrimination, child marriage, and untouchability was also discussed.

Students presented poems, essays, and short speeches emphasizing the importance of education and gender equality. Some students also shared inspirational quotes by Savitribai Phule, motivating everyone to follow her ideals. program concluded with a vote of thanks. Celebration helped everyone understand the value of education, equality, and social justice. Savitribai Phule Jayanti reminds us that education is the strongest tool for social change and empowerment.

Report of anniversary

Programme begun at 10 am with the inauguration of “Ignite the Self, Impact the World” Ms. Sarangdhar Kanchan enlightened concept. Theme encouraged young people to first focus on inner growth, self-confidence, discipline and personal development, and then use that strength to positively influence society and the world around them — reflecting the spirit of Swami Vivekananda’s teachings on youth empowerment and active contribution to nation-building. Mr. Gaikwad Ashish, Incharge of Programme introduced students the schedule of Swami Vivekananda’s Birth Anniversary. Student participated with great enthusiasm in our college on 12 January, marking National Youth Day. Program aimed to inspire students with the life and teachings of Swami Vivekananda, who remains a guiding force for the youth of India, guide & counsel them on day to day issue they face. Programme began with the lighting of the lamp and floral tribute to Swami Vivekananda’s portrait. Vice Principal & teachers addressed the gathering, highlighting his ideals of self-confidence, character building, discipline, and service to humanity.

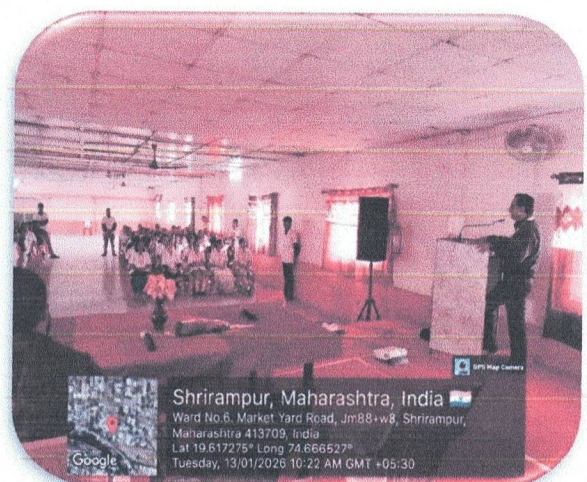

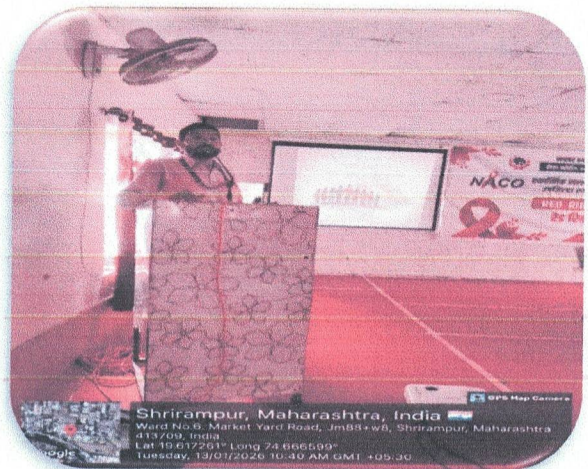

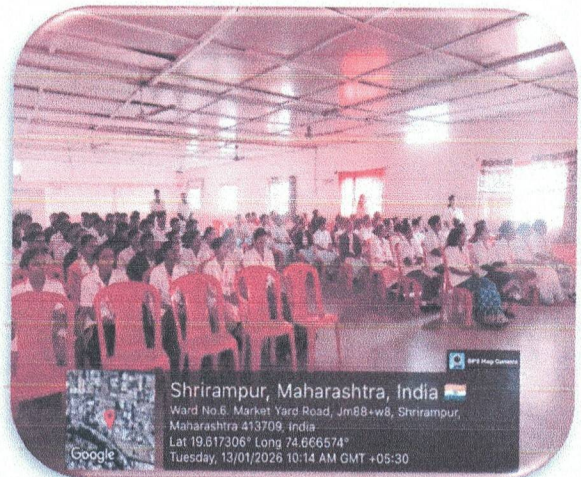

Shri.Karpe Laxmikant dealt the one of the most common issues among youth is academic and career stress. Counseling helps students identify their strengths, set realistic goals, and manage expectations. Career guidance and skill-based counseling reduce confusion and fear about the future.

Shri.Karpe Laxmikant dealt counseled students on mental health issues such as stress, anxiety, depression, and low self-esteem are increasingly common. Counselors provide a safe space for youth to express emotions without fear of judgment. Teaching coping strategies like time management, mindfulness, and positive thinking is essential.

Mr. Dhumal Prasanna guided students about another major concern i.e. peer pressure and addiction, including excessive mobile use, social media dependency, substance abuse, and unhealthy lifestyle habits. Counseling creates awareness about consequences and encourages healthy choices and self-control.

Youth also face relationship and family issues, which may affect emotional balance and academic performance. Counselors help them improve communication skills, emotional regulation, and problem-solving abilities. Guidance and counseling program concluded with a vote of thanks. Programme motivated students to follow the path of hard work, moral values, and national service. The event was a meaningful tribute to Swami Vivekananda and his vision for youth empowerment.
